"Encouraging" is the term used by jitney operators to describe the first week of operation in Daly City. Despite the fact that the Northgate Transit company has yet to meet the expense of gas money, General Manager Charles Lucas said today that the 16 drivers are "very enthusiastic" about the prospects.

Lucas, although stating that business has been slow during the first few days, explained that business has been increasing every day.

"We expect a slow period until the word gets around," he added. The general manager estimated that jitneys have averaged 20 to 25 passengers each per day.

Questions on jitney schedules were answered today by Lucas who states that there is no definite time schedule, but that jitneys will run every ten minutes during rush hours and every 15 to 20 minutes during off-hours.

"Well Pleased" Passengers have been "well pleased with the service, according to Lucas. He added that a few minor mix-ups might be avoided if persons would hail drivers to ask questions.

The general manager said that most of the confusion has developed over the two routes on Alameda boulevard, one of which heads toward Colma and the other up Knowles.

A few complaints of service, however, were received this week at THE RECORD office. One woman reported that she had waited 45 minutes for a jitney in Westlake, another said

Women Appeal For Dog Leash Law Here

A request by two local women for the city to effect a dog leash law was turned down Monday night by the city council.

Mrs. Jack Galanti, 539 Crocker street, told the council that she was making the request after her son had been bitten by a neighborhood dog.

"I've heard that there were 40 dogs in Daly City last month," Mrs. Galanti claimed.

Police Master Charles Maschinot said that there have only been 75 dog bites this year—an average of 10 a month.

"But Westlake has a leash law," the woman continued her argument.

Mayor Joseph J. Verducci explained that Westlake, being part of Daly City, does not have a leash law.

City Attorney Frank Blum added that when the council tried to pass a leash law two years ago about 150 persons protested at the meeting. The law never passed.

"Not one person appeared to ask for the law," Blum declared.

"I'm going to speak to someone higher than this if you won't do something," Mrs. Galanti threatened.

Mrs. James Halloran, 499 Crocker street, was the other person to appeal for a leash ordinance.

"It's awful when animals are ruling people," she commented. Maschinot again addressed the

FAHEY CALLED BEFORE GRAND JURY BY SORENSON

John J. Fahey Jr., Daly City attorney, has been asked to appear before the grand jury July 25 to testify about a reference to an "abortion mill" in northern San Mateo county made at a hearing for fired police inspector David Johnstone Jr.

Fahey said he had heard an abortion mill was operating in this end of the county and that District Attorney Keith Sorenson was taking bribes to keep it running. The local attorney argues, however, that he only made the statement

PEEPING TOM PEEKS AT THREE LOCATIONS

Police are searching for a peeping tom who has been reported in three different vicinities here this week.

First notification police had that a peeping tom was operating in Daly City was when they were told Monday that a man had been bothering residents at the Mission Bell motel on Mission street.

On Monday night a man and his wife on Bellevue street heard a noise at their window while they were preparing for bed. The man rushed to the window, but saw the peeping tom jumping over the fence.

Tuesday night the peeping tom appeared on Santa Barbara avenue where a woman reported that she saw a man peering down the skylight of her house while she was taking a shower.

Police suspect that all three incidents involve the same man.

THIRD HEARING FOR FIRED COP TONIGHT

Third hearing for fired Daly City police inspector David Johnstone Jr., charged with "associating with known gamblers" and "failure to inform his superior officer of all investigations," is scheduled for tonight (Friday) at the council chambers, starting at 7:30 p.m.

It is believed, however, that no testimony will be heard and that Harry Bosbery, head of the civil service board of review, will merely set the date for final arguments by both sides.

The hearing will probably be set for next week, since Bosbery is leaving on a three-week vacation after July 22.

Fish story: High school board trustee LYAL INGERSOLL was fishing up in the boondocks recently near the Oregon border and not having too much luck, just landing a few trout about fingerling size.

Right near the cabin, he hooked into one about a foot long and landed it.

Inside the trout's mouth was a smaller fish, about three inches long, alive and wriggling. Just so they wouldn't call it a fish story, he took the double-barreled catch up to the cabin to show his wife and friends.

After a thorough examination of the phenomenon, the Mrs. took the lesser trout back to the stream and tossed him in, watching as the little finny one swam merrily away.

Few fishermen, or trout for that matter, can boast such an experience.

JANET WATSON, Miss Daly City, was actually not Miss Daly City for a while Saturday night. Judges at West selected SANDRA GONZALES for the honor.

Nothing should be taken away from Miss Watson's title conquest, however. Actually, the four judges were split, with two casting ballots for Miss Watson, two for Miss Gonzales.

The judges decided to give Miss Gonzales the edge—because she looked "more mature."

A few minutes later she was

Boy 15 Held After 100 MPH Chase Through DC Streets

Daly City police entered into a high-speed chase from here to South San Francisco that assumed 100-mile-an-hour proportions Saturday night.

As a result of the mad ride by Officer Robert Crooker and Auxiliary Officer Joseph Gehrig, a 15-year-old San Francisco boy is being held by juvenile officers. His two cohorts are being sought.

Officer Crooker reported that the chase began when he spotted the boys in an auto at Gambetta and Hillside. According to Crooker, the youths "acted suspiciously" so he signalled them to pull over.

When the boys refused to stop, the squad car turned on its red lights and sirens, but the other auto roared off through arterials and down the wrong side of the street.

Reaching South San Francisco, the youth's auto piled into a telephone pole, at which point the boys fled the car. Crooker and Gehrig apprehended the one youth in a nearby field, but the other two escaped.

Following capture of the boy, Crooker, who by this time had been joined by Sergeant Dave Hansen and South San Francisco police, found the boys were driving a stolen car.

The car had been stolen early Saturday in San Francisco from J. K. Hughes, 407 Nevada avenue, San Mateo.

Besides the stolen car count, the boy was charged on eight additional counts.

JERRY KAPPEES

DC Boy, 8, Drowns In SJ River

Contra Costa county Sheriff's officers have discontinued dragging the San Joaquin river for the body of an 8-year-old Daly City boy, presumed drowned Sunday.

Jerry Kappes, son of divorced parents Fred T. and Beverly Kappes, was discovered missing from a cabin cruiser outing on Sunday.

According to the sheriff's office, all hope that the boy may still be alive has vanished. It was first thought that Jerry might have swum to shore from the boat.

The mother of the boy normally has custody of the child, however, the father, who lives at 126 Los Olivos street, had custody of Jerry and his two sisters for the weekend. The mother lives in South San Francisco.

Kappes, a carpenter, his son and two daughters, Judith, 6, and Michelle, 3, were celebrating Michelle's birthday Sunday when the accident occurred. They were aboard "The Northern Light," a cabin cruiser owned by George Day, 1741 Newbridge avenue, San Mateo, along with Day's family and another family.

The party had moored at Prince's Harbor in Antioch and did not discover the missing boy until they had left the harbor, according to the sheriff's office. Upon returning, the group could find no trace of the youngster.

Jerry's grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Fenton, lives right over the Daly City line at 180 De Long avenue, San Francisco.

City Council Revokes Parking Ordinance

The city council Monday night revoked the disputed off-street parking ordinance following recommendation by City Manager Howard Stites.

Along with the revocation, the council ordered a 72-hour parking limit. They also asked the planning commission to report on the possibility of effecting an ordinance refusing to enlarge a house for an additional family if there is no garage.

Councilman Sanford Vickers also suggested that the planning commission investigate the possibility of requiring a driveway that would allow for another car besides one already assumed to be in the garage.

"This is made necessary today when most families own two cars," Vickers said.

Stites explained that the 72-hour parking limit had been put into effect to give the police department legal means for picking up abandoned cars.

"It is not intended to prevent overnight parking," he stated. Other business undertaken by the council included:

Budget of $948,049 Set; Recreation Gets Priority

Daly City's preliminary budget, to be approved Monday night by the city council, does not include a tax rate increase, however, citizens will see the elimination of the 25-cent monthly discount for prompt payment of water bills and a rise in assessed valuation.

The tax rate will remain at $1.43 per $100 valuation in the $948,049 total budget. City employees will be granted a one-step rise on the civil service scale.

In order to keep the present tax rate the council found it necessary to cut out the water bill discount. Persons paying their bills before the 15th of the month now gain a 50-cent discount on the bi-monthly billing.

It was first thought that a further four per cent blanket discount on the entire budget would have to be made, however, it is hoped now that the rise in the city's assessed valuation will make up the difference.

Budget Meet City department heads were informed of the budget Wednesday night at a meeting with the council and City Manager Howard Stites.

At the meeting, Stites explained that other departments are suffering this year for the benefit of the parks and recreation department which has been allocated a total amount of $121,468.

Most of the parks and recreation allocation is directed toward capital outlay with the total of $95,069 being divided into: new equipment, $6,940; Westlake park, $21,000; War Memorial building, $10,000; and other parks at the top of the hill, $11,142.

Establishment of both a six-man engineering department and an accounting department in the budget are additional reasons for the sacrifice of other city agencies.

Oust Smith Total budget for the engineering department amounts to $37,990. Edwin Smith, former city engineer, will no longer be employed by the city.

"We expect the return of $25,000 of this total in revenue," Stites explained to the assembled gathering.

He added that there was no way of comparing the cost of the new department with Smith's services because Smith was often paid directly by the contractor.

According to Stites, $13,000 of

Janet Watson Wins Beauty Contest Here

"I'm just beginning to believe it," today said blue-eyed Janet Watson, who was chosen "Miss Daly City" from eight candidates Friday night.

The 17-year-old Jefferson High school senior is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Watt of 34 Westdale avenue. This is the first beauty contest she has entered.

Janet's statistics are as follows: height, five foot, three inches; weight, 115 pounds; measurements, bust—34 inches, waist—23 inches and hips—35 inches; complexion, fair; eyes, blue; and hair, brown.

She is active in high school activities and is a member of the Pep Club, Junior Statesmen, Spanish Club and Ten Little Indians. Janet plans on being a dental technician when she finishes high school.

Among the spectators at the War Memorial building Friday night were her parents and her "steady," Jim Christman, also of Daly City.

"They were even more excited than I was," Janet recalls. When asked whether she was nervous, her answer was no.

"My mother said I was shaking," she declared, "but it was because I was cold, not nervous."

ed from that city's Municipal Railway, as well as from Daly City, which is now sanctioning a jitney operation.

However, Perkins hopes that if sufficient Broadmoor residents are on hand to back his line, the commission will grant him a certificate of convenience to start in business.

Perkins proposes to operate a one-bus line between 6:30 a.m. and 8:25 a.m. and 5 p.m. to 6:55 p.m. five days a week.

The line would run direct from West Portal down Junipero Serra to Broadmoor, west on 87th to Larchmont, south on Larchmont to MacArthur, north to Washington south on Washington to Dunks and back to West Portal via Junipero Serra.

No passenger pick-ups would be made on Junipero Serra opposite Vista Grande avenue to West Portal north and from West Portal south to that point no passengers would be discharged.

Perkins feels the showing of Broadmoor residents will be the determining factor in the commission's decision. "They're guided by public convenience and necessity and the decision is made on the showing of the people desiring service," he declared.

"Let's pay Smith's bills and then set our own price for the expense involved in finding the monument. We'll send a bill to Doelger. He's responsible. If he doesn't pay it that's a point in our favor. It's the only solution," Ingersoll concluded.

Estimate $150 Cost
Estimate of the expenses involved in finding the monument was $150.

Superintendent Stanford Hannah said he would write Smith another letter about the lost boundaries.

In other action Monday, the board:

1. Approved paying annual dues of $50 to the School Boards association.

2. Were notified that the district would receive $4292.14 from the federal government as in lieu taxes for children whose parents reside on non-taxable government property.

3. Approved Architect Mario Ciampi's recommendation that further boring be done at Westmoor site, at depths of 60 feet, to test soil samples. Estimated cost was $1158.

OK Resignation
4. Accepted resignation of Vivian Howes, who will be married.

5. Approved purchase of celotex to soundproof teachers room, at estimated cost of $180.

6. Turned over operation of the school store to the student body.

7. Reviewed plans for the new administration office building.

8. Discussed type of showers to be installed in boys gymnasium. Ingersoll suggested one valve be used to control all the showers while Trustee Elio Fontana suggested that individual hot and cold valves be used on the showers in addition to the main control valve.

9. Hired Terry L. Ray, 28, as non-certificated employee on a trial basis.

Taxpayers Report Jefferson Growth Rate

New residential construction will bring 6375 new homes into the Jefferson High school district and 3750 new residences into the Laguna Salada Elementary district by 1960, a report issued this week by San Mateo County Taxpayers association reveals.

According to the report, the housing influx would create 1644 more students for the Jefferson district, 750 more for the Laguna Salada schools.

A total of 102 countries is reached via overseas radiotelephone service.

The King salmon comprises more than 90 per cent of the commercial California catch of these fishes.

that a jitney had no required sign while a third claimed that a jitney had passed right by her while she waited.

"Bound To Happen"
Lucas explained these complaints by saying that such things are bound to happen in the first few days of service.

City Manager Howard Stites reports only one complaint on jitneys to his office. He explains that the caller objected to the inadequate signs of the limousines.

Stites added that the Public Utilities commission will probably require the company to have permanent identification on their jitneys.

The city manager's office also received a request to the effect that jitneys operate every hour after 8 p.m.

Police Traffic Inspector Henry Sundermann reports that he has no complaints on jitney service and that he has received full cooperation from drivers.

"We should give them a chance to show what they can do," Sundermann added.

Under the ordinance, a single family unit is defined as the residence for a single family. Multi-family residences will be charged according to the number of facilities for each family, and each trailer unit will constitute a single unit.

Number of units in other than family dwellings shall be determined by dividing the number of persons regularly using the premises by three.

An unimproved single lot will be counted as a single family dwelling, while unimproved property shall be deemed to have five lots to the acre unless otherwise decided by the board of directors.

the total represents work not being done by the city such as maps, record keeping and an ownership file.

The new department will probably be established around the first of September, Stites said.

Accounting Department
Total expected expenditure for the new accounting department is $24,715.

Services of the department will include payroll work, formerly done in the city clerk's office, and a budgetary control system whereby department heads will be informed of expenditures in their departments every month.

Two of the five-man personnel in the new department will be transferred from the water department.

The police department has been granted $170,975 of the total budget as compared to $160,485 last year. Chief Roland Petrocchi requested that the department be given $191,467.

Petrocchi protested the allocation Wednesday night but to no avail.

"Adequate Service"
"You'll just have to give as adequate service as possible which is still commensurate with the budget," Mayor Joseph J. Verducci summed it up.

Stites added that the police department had been granted the highest percentage apportionment in respect to the number of personnel in the department.

The police force also was granted $500 by the council to use in secret investigations.

Largest request made, that of $211,341 for the fire department, was dropped to $106,101 by the council.

Despite Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy's plea that the department needed the extra money to employ ten more firemen and to build a reserve for badly needed new equipment, the council refused to raise the allocation.

"You've already been allowed more than a 20 per cent raise," Stites told Kennedy.

The fire chief replied that the 20 per cent only represented the cost of "catching up" to where the expenditure will "pay the bills."

The street department has been allocated $67,050 as compared to a $68,830 request. Last year the department was granted $40,000.

Largest single item in the budget, amounting to $15,400 for street improvement equipment, comes under the above figure.

According to Stites, the city plans to pave "three miles of road" under this budget.

The water department has been granted $168,390 as compared to the request of $228,600. Last year the department was budgeted $113,082.

Water Superintendent Gus Ford went down the budgeted items point by point, but the council would not change their original plan.

"The most difficult budget to figure" was for the library department, according to all members of the council. Total amount allocated was $33,936 as compared to a $62,786 request. Last year the budget called for $21,604.

Breakdown of the high school district valuation showed: Unsecured property, $2140,305; secured property, $55,262,409.

The total valuation topped by nearly $8,000,000 the figure for the previous year.

The Jefferson Elementary district's total valuation was set at $36,177,595, including $34,922,335 for secured property, $1,255,260 for unsecured.

This year's assessed valuation for the elementary district was nearly $4,000,000 above the figure for 1954-55, $32,475,758. It is also nearly $2,000,000 above the estimate for this year made by the county, meaning the district will have approximately $20,000 more in funds than was originally expected.

Runner-up in the "Miss Daly City" contest was Yvonne DelBraccio, 18, of 537 Hillside boulevard. Yvonne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil DelBraccio and is a Jeff High graduate.

Her specifications are: height, five feet, 1 1/2 inches; weight, 108 pounds; complexion, pale, eyes, brown; hair, black; measurements, 34-23-34 1/2.

Other contestants were: Janet Francis, 590 Atlanta street; Virginia Sutherland, 231 Wyandotte avenue; Midgie Montana, 47 Bismark street; Loretta Berg, 101 Westridge avenue; Thelma Dobbs, 254 Franklin street; and Sandra Gonzales, 5 San Diego avenue (ineligible).

About 100 spectators viewed the program. Judges were Joseph J. Verducci, Daly City mayor; Frank Blum, city attorney; Mrs. Sanford Vickers, active civic worker; and Monte Dayton, THE RECORD news editor. Fred Martin, president of the Chamber of Commerce was scheduled to be the fifth judge, but he did not appear.

Vote Mon. Night On Strip Annexation

nexus proceedings by Daly City.

Blum labeled the filing action as "underhanded."

"It was a deliberate attempt to beat the gun," the city attorney claimed. "First you try and take everything in the world and then try and slap a quickie."

Blum told the assembled leaders of the pro-incorporation movement that it was like dealing with "tribal Indians."

Two Deletions
Thomas Noonan, chairman of the incorporation group, replied that both the Christianson ranch and the Lake Merced Golf course had been dropped from the proposed boundaries.

"If we'd come up here without filing first," Noonan added, "you'd have passed the strip annexation, and where would we be?"

Stanley Brown, another pro-incorporation member chimed in. "You've been pushing us into the distance until we had no time left," he claimed.

He continued that a talk with Stites last week prior to the filing produced no results.

"We had a nice discussion but got nowhere," Brown insisted.

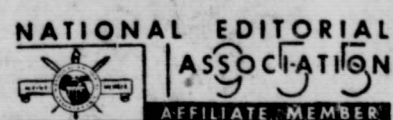

Vincent Cauchi, third member of the pro-incorporation trio, added his voice to the argument.

"Most people want status quo, but it's impossible," he declared. "Every year you lope off some of our territory."

Cauchi claimed that last year the unincorporated areas lost over $1000 in assessed valuation to Daly City.

Forgotten man in the fracas, Edward Bocci, who has applied for the annexation, rose to protest.

"What right have they (pro-incorporation faction) to tell us what to do?" he asked. "We want to come into Daly City."

A LESSON FOR THE CHAMBER

We are dismayed at the manner the Chamber of Commerce, a body that should know how, handled last week's Miss Daly City contest.

A promotion of this type should be perfectly adapted for a Chamber's abilities. Beauty contests are by tradition a Chamber of Commerce's forte.

While the young lady chosen to represent Daly City was unquestionably a good selection, it was through no fault of the Chamber that the end result was so satisfactory.

Prior to, and after the selection of Miss Daly City, the handling of the contest was marked by slipshod arrangements and general bungling.

Perhaps this initial effort will serve to inform the Chamber what not to do when the time rolls around again.

Reader Enjoys Fine Coverage In Record

Gentlemen:

We are comparatively newcomers to Daly City (not yet residents for a year) and surely enjoy keeping up with local affairs through your fine local paper. Your coverage of the city council, transportation issues, recreational matters and the very interesting controversy over "to-be-or-not-to-be" Daly City (on which we are as yet strictly neutral) make very interesting reading.

Incidentally, my pet peeve is the lack of recreational equipment for the tiny-tots in this southeast area which I hope will be remedied in time to come. After all it would take just a few of the "basket" type swings to make these little ones happy. Perhaps in the future something can be worked out between the recreation department and the school district because the Colma school has fine play facilities for the older pre-school child and the school age kiddies are also taken care of and there appears to be adequate space in the play yards for some provision of swings and/or sand piles, etc., for the little people.

However, we realize we are residents of a newly developed residential tract and we are quite

BUSILY PREPARING for her two-week camping trip to some 33 archaeological ruins in New Mexico and Colorado is Nancy Golladay, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Golladay of Broadmoor. Broadmoor Girl Scout Plans 2-Week Trip Through Archaeological Ruins

By Gwin Mitchell

The problem of what to take on a two-week camping tour of some 33 archaeological ruins in New Mexico and Colorado has been upmost these days for Nancy Golladay, 15-year-old daughter of the Ernest R. Golladays.

Nancy, who lives with her parents and sister Barbara at 544 87th street, Broadmoor Village, is one of three California girls chosen to go on this Archaeological Mobile Camp, which will be comprised of 16 Girl Scouts from all over the United States. Sponsored by the National Girl Scouts of America, the Camp trip will take in some 1200 miles, stopping at such places as Durango, Mesa Verde National Monument, Chimney Rock and Bandelier National Monument, to see and learn about the ruins to be found there.

This particular Mobile Camp is one of three held this summer, and after having gone on one such Camp, a Girl Scout is eligible to become one of a group which visits actual archaeological "digs" and does some excavating of its own.

Girl Scouts going on the trip will meet in Santa Fe tomorrow (Saturday) at El Rancho del Cielo, the home of Dr. Bertha Dutton, Dr. Dutton, Curator of Ethnology and Assistant in Archaeology at the Museum of New Mexico in Santa Fe, will be in charge of the group during the tour. She will conduct them through the Museum prior to their departure.

Nancy has been active in Girl Scouts ever since she was old enough to be a Brownie, and is currently a member of Troop 4 Mariners, with Mrs. John Hansen as her leader.

She has received the Curved Bar, the highest Girl Scout rank which can be achieved, and holds many merit badges, specializing in the outdoor field. She is also a member of the Westminster Fellowship group of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church, and is First Messenger in Job's Daughters, Bethel 198. She likes working with children, and many a family in the Village knows her as an excellent babysitter.

Nancy's sister Barbara, thirteen, is also busy with Girl Scouting. As a member of Troop 23, she has just returned from two-weeks at the Girl Scout camp in Sonoma.

CHIEF OPERATOR NAMED FOR NEW SEWAGE PLANT

Maurice H. Coblenz, 64, sanitary engineer from Menlo Park, has been named chief plant operator for the new $500,000 sewage treatment plant in Westlake, the North San Mateo County Sanitation district directors announced this week.

Coblenz, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University with a major in chemistry, will receive a salary of $475 a month.

He has a background of intensive training in sanitary engineering and has worked actively in the field since 1912, serving since 1942 with the U. S. government sanitation department.

Named senior operator was Robert L. Reed, 32, formerly chief plant operator in the Stege district, El Cerrito. His other experience includes water plant operator, sanitary inspector and pilot plant operator.

He now resides at 134 Montanya court, Walnut Creek. His salary will be $450 a month.

Selected as operator was Lawrence Ferruccio Giuffra, 48, 546 San Diego avenue, Daly City, who will receive a salary of $375 a month.

He was employed at Holy Cross cemetery for seven years and has undertaken private courses on sewage plant operations.

All three of the plant operators were named after two comprehensive examinations given by the sewage district board, under supervision of Director Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma, aided by Directors Edward J. Dennis and Sanford Vickers.

BITS AND PIECES. For the concert-minded ... Spencer Barefoot has announced his 1955-56 Celebrity Concerts, covering eight attractions conveniently spaced from October 30 to April 24. It is an exceptionally well-balanced series, representing many facets of the concert field, ranging from Andres Segovia, guitarist, to the celebrated Italian orchestra, I Musici, which will make its San Francisco bow March 5.

Wilhelm Backhaus, imminent pianist, is returning and to judge from his reception last season, no conscience that never with the exception of at "The King and I" have we ever seen a last-minute box office sale to equal the crowd that mobbed the Opera House box offices the Sunday afternoon when Backhaus returned to San Francisco for the first time in almost thirty years.

Also on this series will be Elizabeth Schwarzkopf in her first local recital. So much has been heard about this famous soprano of the Vienna State Opera that her appearance should be a highlight of the coming season. As you will recall, it was her high "C" that was dubbed in for Kirsten Flagstad's in a recording of "Tristan and Isolde" under the conductorship of the late Dr. Wilhelm Furtwangler. Flagstad, a perfectionist, was not satisfied with the playback of two high "Cs," and the decision was reached to have her good friend Elizabeth Schwarzkopf sing them for her. ... Miss Schwarzkopf will make her American operatic debut with the San Francisco Opera Company as the Marshall in "Der Rosenkavalier."

More about the Celebrity Concerts a little later on. In the meantime, anyone interested in season tickets should phone Ordway 3-2289.

For the movie-minded ... Looks as though we should have held off reviewing "The Cobweb" for a week or so and devoted a few inches to "Love Me or Leave Me," which contains in the performance of James Cagney a strong contender for next year's Academy Awards. ... Note that two recordings have been issued, one of Doris Day and one of Ruth Etting. Haven't gotten around to comparing the styles yet, but for anyone interested in pop singers, these should be musts. ... Were much impressed by Doris Day in "Love Me." Have always thought her rather a lightweight. Guess it's just another example of the right gal with the right director in the right role.

Since we're so far ahead of schedule on "Cobweb" might just as well keep right on going on subsequent M-G-M releases. ... One, bearing the most intriguing title we've heard in quite some time, is "Moonfleet," starring Stewart Granger and Vivien Lindfors in a story of smuggling in 18th Century England. ... There is also some talk that the Judy Garland classic, "Wizard of Oz," is going to be re-released.

After that? Well, at the time of writing "Love Me or Leave Me" is still playing at Loew's Warfield, so we'd better wait a while before we talk about the still more distant future.

WINSTON DUMP SITE PROPOSED BY HOWELL

A 70-acre site near Winston Manor subdivision in South San Francisco has been proposed as a new garbage and refuse dump for Daly City, SFP, Bayshore City, Brisbane and San Bruno.

The suggestion was made this week by Eugene Howell, county public health engineer.

Refuse from Daly City and San Bruno is presently being dumped on the Zanone property near Colma, but county supervisors have ordered the site closed down.

Howell suggested the Winston Manor site be operated by formation of a garbage and refuse district including Daly City, SFP and San Bruno.

Ridgley Cummings Reports

A wild animal trainer recently moved into my block but I probably never have known about it. It was the truck that had the leopard's show cage in it. It was empty. My men rounded up as many of the animals as they could find but they couldn't find the leopard. The other trucks were scattered along the road and I couldn't get in touch with them right away. I notified Parker, the chief of police, and asked him to take precautions.

"Come here Karen. Those snakes might be poisonous."

Snakes Mike & Bill
"They're Mike and Bill, garter snakes. They won't hurt her. I don't bring the poisonous snakes into town. We rent them out to the movies. Do you remember the leopard in 'Jupiter's Darling'?" That's the one I wrestle. She worked in three pictures last year.

"I better take the kids home," I said. "Dinner's waiting."

"Well, what happened was that the Daily News was fighting a losing battle for its life at that time. One of their reporters heard about my wire to Parker and then came to scare headlines. As soon as the leopard arrived I notified the L.A. officials. Jack Webb was going to put the case on 'Dragnet' but I got an injunction out to stop him. When the police fingerprinted me they learned that I had been in the Navy under the name of Lewis E. Smith. So Webb thought that my name Wayne Roberts was an alias and he was going to use it. What he didn't know was that I had my name legally changed. You can't work in show business with a name like Smith."

Roberts strolled away and went in the back door of the house. I rounded up the children and was about to take them home when he returned with some bananas, which he peeled and fed to the animals.

"Why don't you give the leopard some," asked Karen.

$2.50 A Day
"He's carnivorous," explained Roberts. "When he's a little bigger he'll cost me $2.50 a day for steaks."

The yard was full of flushed, squealing children who were becoming more confident and more adventurous as familiarity dulled their fear of the animals. I asked Roberts if he didn't find it necessary to carry public liability insurance to protect himself against lawsuits.

"We carry $100,000 with Lloyd's of London," he said. "But we don't believe in paying off to racketeers who go around looking for easy money. That would hike our insurance rates. We have three different companies, exhibiting, entertainment and ownership, and it's cheaper to bankrupt one of the companies. It costs about $150 to incorporate under California law. That way we're protected against people who want to make a living out of lawsuits. Of course if someone was legitimately hurt we'd take care of them."

Dinner was cold by the time we said good-bye but during the interim I picked up a number of anecdotes, one too good to keep to myself. The way Roberts tells it, a ten year old boy came to his animal ranch and wanted to buy an African ant-eater, one of the kind with a long muzzel and a two-foot long darting tongue. Roberts sold him one for, I think he said, $64, and took a ten dollar deposit. The boy carried the ant-eater home and that evening the boy's father came indignantly to Roberts to ask what he meant by taking advantage of a minor. "I won't be responsible for paying the balance," the father shouted. "That's all right," he replied Roberts. "I have confidence in your son. He'll pay me."

"So what happened?" I asked.

Continued Profit
"That desert country is full of flies and ants. This boy rents out the coatiundi at a dollar a day, stakes him out in a back yard or a kitchen. Each week I get three or four dollars from him in the mail. He's paid me off in full and he's making a profit. In his last letter he said he has a long waiting list of housewives who want to rent the ant-eater."

Roberts spend a year travelling all over Europe with a Dutch circus which he said is the greatest in the world. He mentioned the name but I didn't write it down and can remember now only that it sounded something like Van Der Zee.

"That was the life," he said nostalgically. "There were only 21 of us in the troupe and we gave a four hour performance. Every one of us had to have five specialties. Like high wire, sword swallowing, knife throwing, animal training. We put on a better show than some of the big American circuses that have 200 or more performers."

"It's a strenuous life," I said. "And dangerous too."

"We all love it," he said. "We're really excited at heart. When I come back in the fall I want you to bring your children out to Palmdale and visit my ranch. It's right on the highway near the railroad

Phoenix I got a wire telling me a driver had deserted his truck and a lot of the animals had escaped. It was the truck that had the leopard's show cage in it. It was empty. WESTLAKE AUTO SERVICE, upset last month because of tow car breakdowns and the crack up of one of the station's courtesy cars, is still upset—but for new reasons. Last Tuesday a call from Ben Lomand notified Beverly Dikas, co-owner, with "Kelly," of WESTLAKE AUTO Service, that her mother was desperately ill. At the same time, an injured back sent mechanic Roy Reed to St. Luke's hospital. Twenty-four hour service, however, is still the order of the day at WESTLAKE AUTO SERVICE—your AAA station for this area. Location is 6498 Mission St., telephone number is Plaza 5-6700.

"HUGE SAND BOX" is what neighbors call the playground at Garden Village school in Broadmoor. Here three children play in the sand near the fence which was built recently to keep the sand from blowing into the asphalt school yard and neighboring gardens. Broadmoor residents have bitterly protested the nuisance and have even threatened suit against the school district unless measures are taken to eliminate the blowing sand.

Robert Lincoln, director of the summer recreation program at the school, reports that he has to sweep sand from the baseball diamond at least three times a week. THE RECORD photo

Toastmistresses To Convene July 17-20

More than 1000 members of International Toastmistress Clubs, Inc., from every state of the Union, Canada, Alaska, and Hawaii will assemble in San Francisco for the 14th Annual International Toastmistress Convention to be held at the Sheraton Palace Hotel July 17 through July 20.

RUNAWAY CEMENT MIXER CRASHES INTO HOME HERE

"We thought it was a grand slam earthquake," Warren Bauer of 73 Oakmont drive reported after a huge cement mixer crashed into his house early Tuesday morning. According to officers, the truck was parked on Oakmont near Creston when the airbrakes failed and the cement mixer plunged down the hill about 50 feet and into the Bauer's house.

Driver of the cement mixer, Rene Bellefeuille, 122 Tiffany avenue, San Francisco, was cited for improper parking. Police said that blocks had been placed under the wheels, but that the weight of the huge truck had forced the truck to roll right over the blocks. They said that Bellefeuille had also left the motor running. Bauer stated that the truck had piled through his garage which is built on the lower floor of his house. He added that the entire garage door had been wrecked by the truck. At the time of the crash, Bauer was just getting up. His wife and two children, David, 4½; and Alan, 22 months, were also in the house.

Concert Group Signs Three Artists For Fall season

Contracts for the artists to be presented during the coming season by the Vista Grande Concert Association were negotiated on Thursday evening when the Board of Directors met with Miss Alma Lauritzen, concert representative, at the home of the association president, Thomas E. Brewer.

While the definite dates of the concerts were not announced pending confirmation of the bookings by the artist's managers, Brewer did announce that Carl Palangi, bass baritone, would be the first artist presented by the association during its second annual season. Palangi, who is appearing with the San Francisco Opera this year, will be heard in the late fall.

Following this concert, Marcus and Leona Gordon, pianist and soprano, will be presented in a joint concert. The third artist contracted for by the association is David Able, 18-year-old violinist. Young Able, who recently made his professional debut, has been hailed by critics and public wherever he has appeared.

A fourth concert will be presented by the association this year, but Brewer declined any statement, pending final arrangements for this attraction.

Attending last week's meeting, at which the constitution and by-laws of the association were also read and adopted, were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE CONNECTION OF SEWERS IN ANNEXED AREAS AND ESTABLISHING CHARGES THEREFOR

The Board of Directors of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District, San Mateo County, California, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. PURPOSE: In order to establish conditions of equality between properties within areas which may hereafter be annexed to the North San Mateo County Sanitation District, and properties presently within the boundaries of said District by reason of bonded indebtedness heretofore incurred for the purpose of financing the cost of trunk lines and outfall sewers and a treatment plant, which must necessarily serve the properties within said areas hereafter annexed, as well as properties presently within the District, the public interest, economy and general welfare of the District and its people require that conditions and charges for the connection of properties in said areas to be annexed to a public sewer, and they are hereby established as herein provided.

Section 2. SINGLE FAMILY UNIT: A single family unit is defined to mean and refer to the place of residence for a single family. Property improved for multi-family purposes shall constitute a number of units, the number of units being determined by the number of separate facilities for single family units. Each place provided for a trailer in a trailer court shall constitute a single family unit. When such improvements are for other than residential purposes, the number of units shall be determined by dividing the total number of separate facilities for single family units by three. When said property is unimproved, a single lot shall be such unit. When such property is unimproved, it shall be deemed to have five (5) lots to the acre, unless the Board of Directors, in its discretion, specially fixes some other number of lots therefor.

Section 3. CONNECTION CHARGE: A connection charge of twenty-five dollars ($25) per single family unit of property within said areas hereafter annexed to said District shall be paid by the owner or other persons desiring the connection of any such property to an existing sewerage system or proposed system of the District, or to any sanitary sewerage system of said District.

Section 4. ASSESSMENT CHARGE: For any unit or lot or part of said property which may be annexed that abuts on or can be directly served by any existing sewer main of said District constructed pursuant to a special assessment proceeding, an additional connection charge equal to two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per front foot shall be collected, and paid for the privilege of using said main. Where said parcel is of irregular shape, its average width shall be used. Where said parcel is on a corner and is served on both street frontages, up to one hundred (100) feet shall be deducted on the side street in determining said charge. Where said parcel extends through a block and is served on both street frontages, the connection charge herein fixed shall be collected for the total frontage if the depth of said parcel extends two hundred (200) feet.

Section 5. SEPARABILITY: If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances. The Board of Directors hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion hereof irrespective of the fact that any or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, or portions be declared to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 6. PUBLICATION: Upon adoption, this Ordinance shall be entered in the minutes of the Board of Directors and shall be published once in the Record, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the District, within fifteen (15) days following its passage and adoption, and shall take effect and be in force upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after its passage.

WESTLAKE REC PROGRAM GETS IN FULL SWING

By the Recreation Dept.

Westlake's summer recreation program got rolling last week with one very enthusiastic preparation for the coming ping pong, chess, checkers, and paddle pool elimination tournaments. The Boserby brothers, Dave and Don, are mowing down the opposition in the practice rounds of the older children's ping pong with Mike Silverstein establishing himself as a strong contender for the championship. In the younger age group bracket of the forthcoming ping pong tourney the field is wide open, however Walter "Butch" Gulden, Barbara Verducci, Mark Gulden, Luzanne LaMardy, Richard Albrecht, and Skipper Smith have shown flashes of championship form.

The Chevensvold brothers, Allan and Steve, have taken to paddle pool like a duck takes to water and are a good bet to take the older group championship in that event, although they cannot entirely count dark horse John Drey out of it. Sandy Sarubbi, Susan Trapani, Butch Verducci, Jim Reiterman, Diane Bel, and Janice Stroud are outstanding challengers for the younger kids in the paddle pool tourney.

Chess and checkers haven't been able to compete with the fascination of ping pong and paddle pool but when things quiet down, elimination tournaments will get underway in these games.

Arts and crafts are again one of the most popular of the summer-time recreational activities at Westlake and the turnout of children on Monday and Thursday mornings was exceptional with about 90 children attending each time. Of course the Monday afternoon movie is expected to exceed his figure and it is all for free. Archery is still another big hit with the kids and Westlake has some real deadeye's in Steve Calendar, Don Boserby, Tom Dooley, Tom Asaro, Jim Fontenos and Mike Seelig.

We want to express our heartfelt thanks to Janice Gulden, John Brown, and the Chevensvold brothers for their helping hand on the Thornton Beach Hike and we hope we can count on their continued help for the forthcoming scheduled special events each Wednesday.

Congratulations to the Westlake Rockets and their able coach John Belforte on their double win Saturday—keep up the good work!

Lolita Nygren, Son Journey To Nebraska

Lolita Nygren, 835 Stoneford drive, Broadmoor, an employee in the service department of Henry Doelger Builder, Inc., leaves by auto Friday with her son Michael, 9, for Nelson, Neb., where she will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Lacey.

While there she and her son will also journey to Lincoln, Neb., to visit relatives in that city. Michael just recently returned from a trip to Bristow, Neb., where he stayed at the Carl Nygren residence.

Mrs. Nygren and her son will be gone two weeks.

LOCAL ARCHERS PROVE METTLE WITH LONG BOW

Recreation department archery got started this week with the organization of a "Bullseye Club." In order to qualify for this club an archer must hit the center of the target at least once. This first member of the club was Steve Calendar.

Last year Steve represented Westlake at the "All-City Meet" held at Jefferson High. John Larson from Olympia School scored three while Mike Cox of Marchbank and Don Boserby from Westlake scored two each.

John did not take part in the Archery Program last year but he shows great promise as becoming an excellent archer, according to supervisors.

Mike won the Ladder Tournament last year at Marchbank. Don Boserby looks as if he's really going to be a contender to represent his part at the big meet, the department said. Dick Tomlinson with five and Mike Blume with four were the high scorers for the week. Dick shows that he can be very consistent as he very seldom misses the target. Mike is hot on Dick's trail, only missing his record by one. Big things are expected from these two Jeff archers, the department predicts.

Marchbanks—Mike Cox, 2; Larry Cox, 1; Al Nairn, 1; Ed Leveroni, 1; Allen Labarez, 1.

Jefferson—Dick Tomlinson, 5; Mike Blume, 4; Wayne Gordon, 1; Mike Chiariello, 1; John Uccelli, 1.

Westlake Rockets Open League Title Defense With Win

Westlake Rockets successfully opened their defense of the Peninsula Baseball league title Saturday as Paul Tapia pitched a one-hit, 10-4 victory over South San Francisco.

Tapia struck out 12 batters through the seven-inning route. While Paul was checking the opposition, his teammates picked up 10 hits.

Jim Wilson's stand-up triple with Gordy Tydingco on base accounted for the initial tally in the first inning. Tapia then drove in the next run, followed by a single by Pete Garcia. Ed Berg made base when hit by the pitcher. With runners on every sack, Dave Frost singled home Tapia and Garcia to give the Rockets a 4-0 lead they never relinquished.

Tapia had a no-hitter going until the final inning when clean-up batter Flood singled sharply into right field.

Hitting honors for the day went to Westlake's Dave Frost, who collected two singles in two trips; Jack Bautista, Tydingco, and Wilson, who each got two for five.

This Saturday the Rockets meet the tough Burlingame Optimists at Washington park in Burlingame, starting at 10:30 a.m.

MOTORCYCLES TO REPLACE HORSES AT BAY MEADOWS

Motorcycles will replace horses at Bay Meadows race track, San Mateo, during the weekend of July 23-24 for the running of the sixth annual 20-mile national championship.

Nationally prominent throttle-jockeys will once again roar over the one-mile dirt oval that last year produced one of the greatest motorcycle spectacles ever witnessed. Last July, over 11,000 racing enthusiasts saw the present grand national champion Joe Leonard of San Jose and Michigan ace Paul Goldsmith battle wheel-to-wheel for 14 miles before the victory fell to Leonard.

Time trials for the 20-miler will be held on Saturday and the nine-event finals program Sunday afternoon.

Even numbered buoys mark the right hand sides of the channels of waterways, entering from seaways.

$64,000 Question Is Lutheran Church Topic

Combining the fact that the familiar television show, "The $64,000 Question," draws unusual interest and bases its questions on Bible passages, the Rev. Luther M. Schliesser Jr., pastor of the Lutheran Church of Our Savior at Junipero Serra and Garfield street in San Francisco, recently called the lady contestant up for a crack at the highest prize.

Her answer, "What then shall I do with Jesus?" to the question about what she considered the most important Bible passage, led Pastor Schliesser to name his sermon topic "The $64,000 Question," odd, but with a deep underlying meaning. The Rev. Schliesser preaches every Sunday morning at both devotions, 8:30 and 10:45 a.m., at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior.

HIGH SCHOOL TO SEEK SECOND SITE S. OF LINDA MAR

Conferring with the county planning commission's site committee Monday, Jefferson High School district board of trustees asked that approximately 30 acres of property south of Linda Mar be kept free from sub-dividing for possible future use as a school site.

Faced with increased growth and lack of finances, the district had been undecided whether to start acquisition of a second Coastside school site (the district already owns a 27-acre parcel in Sharp Park). The site committee assured trustees that any property selected as a possible school site by the district would be kept free from development until the district had made its decision.

Headed by Frank Skillman, planning director, the site committee said they would "definitely" consider the school district's needs first before approving applications for other uses of the property.

The district will probably not purchase the property until the 1956-57 fiscal year.

BROADMOOR YANKS GOODWIN TWIRLS ONE HIT SHUTOUT

Bob Goodwin twirled a one-hit shutout Saturday at Jefferson High diamond as Broadmoor Yanks buried San Mateo Blue Jays, 10-0, in recreation league play.

Goodwin struck out seven batters in his near-perfect game, walking none.

Dixie Howell and Tom McHugh paced Broadmoor hitting, each getting three for four.

Broadmoor's other hits were registered by Jim Hieck and Bruce Hix, who each got one.

BPOA Still Neutral On Incorporation Issue

"We have taken no official stand on incorporation of Broadmoor." This was the statement made this week by Jack Baker, president of Broadmoor Property Owners association.

Baker said that appearance of Vincent Cauchi, Broadmoor director, at a recent incorporation meeting, was not as a representative of the association but as a private citizen.

FORMER SPANISH DON TWIRLER IS FIESTA HOSTESS

Official hostess for the All Peninsula Championship Baton Twirling Contest to be held at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta will be Patsy Speer, former majorette with the Spanish Town Dons. Miss Speer was the California state baton twirling champion from 1950 to 1954 and placed second in the 1954 national championship. Her spirited and expert demonstrations delighted visitors during her appearances at the 1954 Fiesta.

This year's Fiesta will be held August 5 through August 13. For two days of the nine day run, peninsula baton twirlers will have the opportunity to test their techniques in a major competition. Preliminaries will take place on Monday, August 8. On Tuesday, August 9, first, second and third place winners in the preliminaries will compete in finals to be held on the Fiesta Bowl stage.

Classifications for contestants run from novice, nine years and under, to senior, 16 years and up. There will be, in addition, an open specialists division for those individuals who specialize in using more than one baton at a time or have added other embellishments to their demonstrations.

Entries in the contest may be made only by individuals, not by groups.

Applications are now available at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta office, 25th avenue and Philip street, San Mateo. Those must be filled out and returned to the Fiesta office not later than August 6.

Anyone residing or attending school in San Mateo county, the city of San Jose or the area in between may enter the contest.

On the final day of the competition, Miss Speer, after acting as contest hostess, will give a number of exhibition demonstrations.

HIX HOMER PACES BROADMOOR RED WIN

The Broadmoor Reds defeated St. Gabriel's, 13-6, in a San Francisco Midget league battle Saturday that wasn't settled until the final inning when Bill Hix unloaded a bases-loaded home run.

R. Townsend and Hix led the Broadmoor hitting attack with four safeties apiece, while Engler of St. Gabriel's sparked his club with a homer and a single.

Daly City Hardball Gets Reprieve; Dads Will Sponsor Team

Fathers of Daly City's baseball playing youth figure there's more than one way to skin a cat.

A proposal to enter a Daly City hardball team in the Peninsula league appeared doomed this week, when none of Daly City's merchants would get behind the club as sponsors as the Wednesday deadline neared.

Tuesday night one of the fathers of a boy signed up for the team decided they were going to have a Daly City team in the Peninsula league.

He contacted all the fathers of boys on the team and they agreed to finance their own son's uniforms and equipment.

This means that Sunday the Daly City team will play its inaugural Peninsula league game against Millbrae at the Capuchino diamond, starting at 2 p.m.

Lou Martin, Jefferson High school baseball coach, will pilot the club.

Team members signed to date are: Jim Honeywell, Ed Leveroni, Delmar Scott, Mike Wedlake, Leroy Franzosa, Ino Patron, Paul Tapia, Bill Strassburger and Ron Cryer.

Barsten Jr., Sr. Win Rifle Shoot Honors

The father-son duo of Al Barsten Jr. and Sr. of Daly City, topped the field in the Mission Rifle and Pistol club's first qualifying shoot held Sunday at the club's new Rockaway beach range.

Despite a troublesome wind, the gang of 30 that turned up for the rifle shoot enjoyed a good afternoon at the targets and the dinner table.

Barsten Jr. fired high score of 172, followed by his father, who compiled a 169. Next in order were: Don Smith of San Francisco, 168; Alex McArthur of Daly City, 168; George Swanson, SF, 167; Pat O'Donnell, SF, 166; Walter Swanson, SF, 164; Vern Beeson, San Mateo, 163; and Sam Rogers, SF, 157.

The NRA qualifying competition was with .30 caliber rifles at 200 yards, with shooting at four positions—standing, kneeling, sitting and prone.

The club will hold its next shoot in the near future.

POLICE SERGEANT Rocco Benedetti of Daly City sells the first tickets to the 27th annual Peninsula Police Officers Ball to Mrs. Juanita Gulsti. The ball will be held this year August 20 at Bay Meadows clubhouse, San Mateo. Tickets were in the mail today to all local residents. All proceeds to the dance will go to the associations' widows and orphans welfare and aid fund.

Local Man Gives Blood

Jack W. Standard recently donated blood to the Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank. It was the first time he has given blood, according to the bank attendants.

Five DC Mariners Meet With Foreign Scouts

Five members of Mariner Ship No. 4 of Daly City were among the San Mateo county senior girl scouts who recently met with four exchange scouts from Australia and New Zealand.

A total of 35 girls gathered at the home of Mrs. David Bohanan in Woodside where they enjoyed an afternoon of swimming and sunbathing.

Those who represented Daly City were Ann Bergstresser, Carol Hansen, Maureen Kennedy, Audrey Stewart and Drena Guraldi.

CREIGHTON SUFFERS LOSS TO SACRAMENTO

Daly City's youthful pitching sensation Lowell Creighton has a won-loss record now.

In his return to action Friday after making his debut with a 1-0 shutout over San Diego, Creighton was driven from the bag by lowly Sacramento as the San Francisco Seals lost, 6-5.

Creighton, who couldn't find the mark, was banged out of the box by a five-run rally in the fourth, after opening the game auspiciously by swatting his first professional hit, a single, that drove in the initial run in the second inning.

Creighton gave up his first run in Pacific Coast league baseball in the second inning on two walks and a double. Going into the fourth, he had limited Sacramento to the single hit.

The Solons then cut loose for five hits and chased the teen-age tosser into the dugout.

Don Baich opened the inning with a double. Johnny Briggs walked and Richie Myers singled home Baich. Jackie Tobin followed with a single scoring Briggs and Creighton was through.

He was relieved by Bob Greenwood, who walked Tommy Glaviano to load the bases. Harry Bright singled, scoring Myers; Rufe Crawford walked and Buddy Heslet whacked a sacrifice fly to score Tobin. Young Lowell was charged with all five runs, as he had allowed the scorers to reach base.

The loss leaves Creighton with a 1-1 mark in his tender career in organized baseball.

The Jefferson graduate may see mound action this week against Hollywood.

IT'S FINAL: DRUG NINE OVER B'MOOR

It's final! Daly City Drugs must forfeit its recent Daly City Softball league win over Broadmoor police.

The recreation department protest board had ruled the game a forfeit win for Broadmoor, since the drugmen used an ineligible player.

An appeal was made to change the ruling on eligibility so the board contacted the league managers, who may alter the rules by unanimous vote.

Four of the six managers contacted vetoed the rule change, meaning the game must be forfeited, according to Ed Mosconi, board chairman.

BRISBANE HOLDS CAGE LOOP LEAD DOWN COAST, 32-26

The powerful Brisbane "B's" kept their undefeated record intact with an impressive 32-26 win over the hustling Sharp Park Coastiders in a Teen-Age League contest played last Thursday at the community center.

Center Jim Galton controlling both backboards, while hitting 14 points, was chiefly responsible for the Brisbane victory.

Al Dye and Dave Simons kept the Sharp Park ball club in the game throughout, with 8 and 6 point outputs respectively. Actually, the contest was decided in the first half when Fuzzy Fifth and Dick Fudge each hit a pair of field goals midway in the second period. Both teams played on even terms after this outburst but the Sharp Park hoopsters were unable to close the gap. The Brisbane victory was their second in as many starts. Sharp Park now has two wins against one loss for second place in the league. Brisbane goes against the undefeated Lincoln Park club in their next outing. Sharp Park will face the same club on July 19th.

The Brisbane "A's" continued their undefeated string when the Sharp Park "A's" failed to appear. This gives the Brisbane varsity a 2 and 0 record while the Sharp Park team now has no victories in both their starts.

Tuesday evening the Sharp Park "B's" handed a game but out-manned Daly City quintet their fourth consecutive loss of the season, with a 30-18 drubbing. Cliff Barret, playing his first game for the Coastiders, hit 17 points while playing a splendid game on defense. The issue was never in doubt as Barret and Chapman hitting almost at will pushed the winners to a 19-4 half time advantage.

The smaller Daly City club, forced to shoot from the outside by the fine zone defense employed by Sharp's, hit only 16 per cent of their floor shots. In the second half Andy Ruelas, Daly City captain, and Gary Hartman made up some of the deficit with a series of driving lay-ins. Daly City's next game will be played July 19 against the league leading Brisbane Five.

Baseball Is Tops With Young Set

MARCHBANK PARK—

Baseball in all types and forms top the list of activities at Marchbank park. Age is no barrier in this sport. Tots and teenagers, boys and girls, dads and moms too, all enjoy swinging that big stick and wielding that ball. Just peek in someday and you'll see the kids working out with their dads. If there is any better example of patience and co-operation I'd like to see it. And the mothers aren't left on the side line, as for example, Mesdames Day and Ramirez. These ladies take time from their home duties to work out with their junior leaguers John, Michael, and Donna Day and Rudy, Nicky and Mike Ramirez. Believe me these ladies throw a mean curve and hit a hard line drive.

Queen of the baseball parade is 12-year-old Elizabeth "Bug" Russell. She's as good as any of the boys, and they're the first to admit it. Bug loves sports and shows it, and yet she is a young lady in every sense of the word.

Volleyball is gaining ground as another favorite. Pat and Mike Kennedy, Jim Lafano, Leslie Russell and Steve Anderson are developing some tricky plays. Plans for a big championship game are underway.

Card games are growing in popularity. Spoon is the game most played. If you happened to see Ricky Craig rolling a ball with his nose across the lawn you'll know he lost at spoons and was paying the consequence. Touring is another game of skill. Joan Malloy is present champ.

Archery is drawing a good crowd. The young "Robin Hoods" are already vying for the winner's place. Competition is strong and only time will tell.

On the upper level at Marchbank preparation for Bike Day is in full swing. This event will take place each Thursday. So if you want to get in on the prizes you'd better hustle.

FRANKFORT

Ronald Bontempi introduced a new game to the children. It is paddle tether ball. A tennis ball is tied to a tether pole. Paddles are used to hit the ball. The same rules as tether ball are used.

Ron, Chuckie Oliveira, Eddie Larios and John Kenny are a few that tried their skills at the game.

THE RECORD SPORTS

RALPH'S UPSET BY COP 9 IN SOFTBALL ACTION

The improved Broadmoor Police nine this week upset the Ralph's Cleaners ball club, 6-4, as Jim Gonzales bested Mike Orlich in a pitchers duel.

Ralph's drew first blood in the second inning when Jerry Silverstein singled home Tony Giammona with the games initial run. Eddie Kenna's smashing double with two aboard in the third stretched the Cleaner nine's advantage to three runs. Adding one more in the fourth Ralph's coasted along appearing to have the ball game sewed up. In the fifth inning the Broadmoor outfit came alive with a pair of runs on a walk, and an error, in a long double to left center.

A single and a homer with two on in the sixth tied up the ball game for the police department. Blanking Ralph's in the seventh Broadmoor pulled the game out of the fire when temporary wildness by the usually consistent Mike Orlich forced home a pair of runs. The Broadmoor win gives them a 4-3 record and a chance to make the playoffs. The loss was the second suffered by Ralph's against five victories.

Firemen Win One

In the battle to escape cellar spot the Daly City Fire Department came through with their first victory, 19-8, over the winless O.L.P.H. Men's club. The winners were paced by big Charlie Maynard who collected four hits in five trips to the plate. Hitting stars for the losers were Ed Denning, Ed Coleman Sr. and Boots Vinal. Daly City Club jumped right out in front in the opening inning when Church and Wallagora, who had singled, scored on Maynard's tremendous homer to right field. The firemen scored five additional runs in the succeeding. Gil Fontana's smashing double was chiefly responsible for the damage. The O.L.P.H. Men's club got back in the ball game, scoring four runs in the 3rd and four more in the fourth. John Flynn's safety with three aboard was the big blow for the Men's club. The roof fell in the seventh when pitching wildness and a pair of home runs by Bob Gaggero and duced for the younger children; but it proved so much fun, that the older boys joined in. They were Bill Whalen, Tommy Waddell, and Ronald Monti.

LINCOLN

Lincoln playground was well represented on last Wednesday's picnic-hike to Thornton beach. All of the boys and girls had a wonderful time working up tremendous appetites for the hot dogs and soda pop that climaxed the day activities.

Our next planned trip is a visit to the Planetarium in Golden Gate Park. Lincoln park is having planned activities starting this week. Saturday will feature a scavenger hunt. All those interested are advised to contact the director of Lincoln park for further details.

JUDGE LEAVES BENCH TO PITCH PERFECT CONTEST

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci of Garden Village cast off his jurist's garb, donned a flamboyant golf cap and pitched Broadmoor police to a 10-0, no-hit, no-run baseball game Tuesday night at Marchbanks park.

The extra-judicial activity came about when the Broadmoor Youth association's baseball team couldn't find an opponent for a practice game. They asked the Broadmoor police softball team to play them in a hardball game just to while away the time.

Bocci, who pitched for USP in his college days, happened to be visiting at the police station when the challenge was proffered and, since the police team had no hardball pitchers, offered his services.

With police commissioner Harry Brown calling the signals at the catcher position, Bocci fired away.

In the first inning one BYA player reached base on a walk. For the next six innings his honor kept the basepaths clean, striking out eight batters on the way.

The judge raised eyebrows further when, in the fourth inning with one man on base, he smashed a towering homer.

The other law enforcement representatives, Brown and Chief Ray Savage, got three and two singles respectively.

The forces of law and order prevailed Tuesday night.

OLPH's Reese Hands 12 Mile 9 Thumping

OLPH's Dick Reese turned in three-hitter Saturday as the local club edged 12 Mile House, 3-1, in Daly City Little league action.

Two runs in the seventh inning gave OLPH the margin of victory. Reese struck out eight batters in registering the win.

Top OLPH hitters were George Damron with three for three, a singles. George Claus picked up two while Barry Krohn's trip over the right-fielder's head was the day's longest blast. Rich Morales was credited by Coach Lowe as the right fielder with a fine game a shortstop.

The win left OLPH in a tie for first with a 2-0 mark.
